The Small Cities – Band:

Writing/Essay/Journal

The band, The Small Cities, do not have any interviews, just clips of themselves playing one of their songs. Do you feel that your art speaks for itself? What about your identity? What parts of yourself do you feel need no explanation? What parts of your identity are more complicated? How does the band use their music as a way of connecting with people? What is the most beautiful thing about this kind of art?

Activity

Write a poem or song about a moment in your life that may initially seem insignificant, like picking up someone and going for a ride, or having a conversation. How do these small moments add up to something larger like friendship?
